0. A. U.

The following extract from the recent address delivered by the President of the Order of the American Union, will show the bigoted feeling with which that organization regards a large portion of the inhabitants of this country, among whem are many of our best citizens:—

I need only to call your attention to the I need only to call your attention to the alarming increase in our country of the most intolerant of all religious sects, the Roman Catholic, whose history is written in blood and is embodied in these words—ambition, persecution, superstition, intolerance, inquisition, Jesutitism and priesteraft. Eighty-seven years tion, superstition, intolerance, inquisition, Jes-uitism and priesteralt. Eighty-seven years ago they numbered in this country only one in 131 of our population; thirty-seven years ago (1840) they had increased to one in eighteen of our population; (wenty-seven years ago (1850) they numbered one in cleven; seventeen years ago (1860) they had grown to one in nine; in 1870 their increase reached one in seven of our population, and in 1880, three years hence, they will undoubtedly number one fifth or one sixth of our population,

The present number of Catholies in the United States is estimated at 7,500,000. In 1790 it was only about 35,000. Their increase since that time is equal to about two hundred and niueteen fold, while the increase of the entire population during the same period was only eleven and a halt fold. Judging by this rapid rate of increase, which is owing to imminever felt bette gration and to the Jesuitical injunction ful than I do. laid by the priest in the privacy of the con-fessional on the ignorant and superstitious married penitent, that it is his or her religious duty to multiply children for the good of the Church, the danger is imminent that within thirty years the Romish Church will have the control of our national government, of a majority of our State governments and all our municipal governments, just as that Church has now the political control of New York city. Leading coclesiastics and writers of that Church have frequently declared and are now boasting that within that period of time they will have things their own way, and will make up for having been obliged to pay taxes to support our public school system, either by abolishing that system or demanding that all their educational sectarian institutions be supported out of the public treasury.

From the foregoing statements I have given, showing the remarkable increase of Romanism in this country, there is imminent danger that our children and children's children may be compelled to live under the domination of Rome; that this great and magnificent country of ours may be finally subjugated by the most powerful hierarchy the world has ever seen. A slight inkling can be obtained of what kind of in case this foreboding should come to pass, by action. referring to the history of the Church from its establishment during the fourth century down to the present time, and to the intolerant course pursued by her in this country, as I have already showe. Often when my thoughts have turned to the future of our country, I have had a melancholy feeling come over me at the bare idea of a possibility of Catholicism becoming the paramount religion, that our grandchildren may possibly suffer from the arrogance, perhaps persecution of that Church, and that the principles of civil and religious liberty our Revolutionary Protestant forefathers shed their blood for and established may eventually be swept away by the disciples of Loyola. To illustrate how that Church will behave, should it ever obtain control, we have only to refer to its doings in New York city and other places, where, owing to its having one third of the votes, it was able to dictate terms to the party in power. During the last twenty years the authorities of that city, composed mostly of Irish Catholics, and non-Catholic demagogues, have donated out of the public fund to 126 different Catholic scotarian institutions, consisting of churches, convents, retreats, protectories, hospitals, asylums and so on, over $12,000,000, nine tenths of which were paid by Protestants and non-Catholic taxpayers, while Protestant scotarian institutions received less than $1,000,-000. In 1857 the City Council donated to that Church a tract of land, on part of which the magnificent Fifth Avenue Cathedral is erected, worth at that time $750,000, but valued to day at about $4,000,000. The plea that this gigantic donation was a charitable affair cannot avail. inasmuch as a ten million dollar cathedral was a recipient of a portion of the gift. To day, on the tax duplicate of that city is a special levy to raise $400,000 per annum to support the Roman Catholic Protectory at Fordham.

For many years the general government has supported Providence Hospital, in Washington; hundreds of thousands of dollars have been appropriated for that purpose. Two years since Congress donated to the "Little Sisters of the Poor" $25,000, which was used to build a church. The members dared not vote against these appropriations for fear of losing Roman Catholic votes. In the same manner the Legislature of N.Y. has been compelled to vote at different times over $1,000,000 to Romish institutions. In California Romish institutions are largelysupported out of the public treasury all brought about by a gentle reminder that Catholic votes could be retained by being liberal with the ing reduced rates of board, graduated according | Church. As fast as the number of adherents of that Church increases just so fast do they in crease their demands. These facts illustrate most unmistakably the purpose of Rome to obtain control of the public revenue as quickly as possible for the purpose of aggrandizing itself. To further illustrate the danger resulting from Romanism, should it ever gain sufficient power, to twenty-five per cent discount on the above | we have only to refer to the numerous Catholic mobs organized for the purpose of suppressing the right of speech and the right of l'rotestant processions to march in our streets. This Church is rapidly planting in our midst system that will in time utterly destroy our republican form of government. She is binding her laity together in sceret societies to the hazard of the peace of the nation, these societies are but branches of similar bodies in Europe, all controlled and inspired by the Pope; she is teaching dogma and faith to millions of youth (who will in time be voters), that sent free upon application. Sample supply free are directly opposed to the spirit of our to physicians desiring to test. institutions; she fails to teach in her schools virtue, honesty or loyalty to our flag.
